DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

- The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

➤ Claims 4-6 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Applicant's Specification does not support the new limitation of "having a diameter dimensions of less than 20 micrometers". For instance, see page 7, lines 2-7, wherein Applicant clearly disclosed a general dimension of about 20 micrometers, which is described in term of "a pitch" and not as "a diameter".

- The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

➤ Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is not clear to the Examiner whether the sensor element is selected from a group that only include sensors that response to a mechanical actuation or not. It seems that such limitation of "in response to a mechanical actuation to said sensor element" is not a critical limitation since as acknowledged by Applicant any sensors could be used as the input devices (see page 4, lines 25-30 of the Specification).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

➤ The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

➤ Claims 1 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Marsh (US Patent No. 5,471,405).

Regarding claim 1, Marsh teaches a device (see cols. 1-12) comprising a support substrate (10) supporting a sensor element (14), a logic circuit (26) and a semiconductor visual display element (18) (see Figs. 1-4).

Regarding claim 7, Marsh teaches that the sensor comprises a pressure sensor (see col. 4, lines 43-45 and col. 5, lines 55-59).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

➤ The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

➤ Claims 2-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Marsh (US Patent No. 5,471,405) in view of Ogihara et al. (US Patent No. 6,222,208 B1).

Regarding claims 2-6, Marsh fails to teach that said visual display comprises an array of semiconductor pixels. However, Ogihara et al. teach that it is well known in the art to use GaAs LEDs as display devices, which comprise a pitch of about 20  $\mu\text{m}$  (see col. 1, lines 10-13 and 20-30, and col. 5, lines 12-15). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the same time the invention was made to modify Marsh to use GaAs LEDs as display devices having a pitch of about 20  $\mu\text{m}$ . The ordinary artisan would have been motivated to modify Marsh in the manner described above for at least the purpose of providing a high precision and bright display.

Response to Arguments

➤ Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-7 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

➤ Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
